To whom it may concern,

I would like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to Holly McFarlin and her team at Skillern's business systems for the outstanding service they have provided to Door Control Services.

Skillern's has been a valuable asset to our business for years, providing a level of support that surpasses our expectations and allows us to focus on our mission and goals to be the best we can in our own industry.

In today's world, finding a partner you can rely on is critical to success and we feel that Skillern's Business Systems is truly as their slogan states, "A Partner You Can Depend On".

We greatly appreciate their combination of experience and industry knowledge that they leverage to provide us with the best systems to meet our ever changing needs. We look forward to many more years partnering with Skillern's and receiving such a wonderful level of service.

Sincerely,

Mark Nelson
CFO, Door Control Services
